

EMPOWERED TO THRIVE

Through a network of volunteers, as well as an on-staff, licensed clinical social worker, At Home in Greenwich supports a diverse community of aging adults living at home by providing trusted resources & services, enrichment opportunities, and social connections. This empowers our members to live independently in their preferred environment, safely, and with confidence.

ENJOY LIFE WITH US

The Program Committee meets every month to plan the upcoming social and educational events. Your input and participation are always welcome!

- Cultural excursions to museums, concerts, art exhibits, lectures and gardens
- Learning opportunities including current event discussions and topical seminars
- Regular get-togethers for walks, reading, games and trips
- DineAround lunches and dinners to discover new restaurants
- Hobby exploration like cooking, reading, traveling, and playing mahjong
- Meaningful volunteer opportunities and MORE!

HELP WHEN YOU NEED IT

We act as advocates, problem solvers and coordinators!

- A licensed clinical social worker on staff who, when needed, can help you solve problems and direct you to additional resources
- Referrals to carefully screened vendors who provide home maintenance, health care, transportation, financial and insurance assistance and more
- Dedicated volunteers to drive you to the doctor (and can stay for the visit), change a light bulb or fire alarm battery, pick up prescriptions, etc.
